Friendly Reader!

W H A T is here presented to thy View, is written in great Love, and I desire that the Lord by his Holy Spirit, may give thee a right Understanding of the Truths herein laid down. Our Principles and Doctrine have been very much misrepresented, and many of our Friends Words and Writings have been wrested and mis-construed by many, who wanted Charity, which is the Bond of Perfection; the Apostle has excellently described it, in his first Epistle to the Corinthians, he saith, 1 Cor. xiii. 4. Charity suffereth long, and is 5, 6. kind, Charity envieth not, Charity vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up, doth not behave it self unseemly, seeketh seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no Evil, rejoyceth not in Iniquity, but rejoyceth in the Truth: Oh, that it might prevail among the Children of Men universally that so there might be no envying one another: Charity is so far from speaking Evil, or doing Evil, that it thinketh no Evil: Though saith 1 Cor. xiii. 3. the Apostle, I bestow all my Goods to feed the Poor, and give my Body to be burned, and have not Charity, it profiteth me nothing. It were greatly to be desired, that all would endeavour to excel therein, that so there might be an holy Harmony amongst the Children of Men. This Treatise being small, may come into many Hands, where some large Books, that give a more full and particular Account of our Doctrine and Principles, may not come; and if the Observations that are made on the several Heads touched upon, may have the good Effect to remove Prejudice, and open the understanding of the Religious and well-minded, it will very much answer the Desire of him, who wishes well to Thee and all Men; AP 59

To all P E O P L E, &c.

AS the Lord hath been so wonderfully gracious and kind to the Children of Men, who were gone astray from him, that he has sent the Spirit of his Son Gal. iv. 6. into their Hearts, to be a Guide and Teacher to them ; it is greatly to be desired, they may all take Heed unto it, that thereby they may be enabled to withstand and resist the Enemy of their Souls, in all his Temptations and Assaults ; for it is certain, as Christ said, without me ye can do nothing ; we are not able without the Help of his Spirit, to resist the least Temptation ; for in that Divine Light, which lighteth every John i. 9. Man that cometh into the World, and gives Men and Women a Sight and Discovery of that which is evil, there is Power to enable them to withstand and resist the Enemy in all his Temptations, as they take Heed to it; but many People are Strangers to this Divine Light, tho' the Apostle Paul tells us, how Men may know it; he saith

All things that are reprov'd, are made manifest by the Light, for whatsoever doth make manifest is Light. It is no Mat. iv. 1. Sin to be Tempted, if Men shut out the Temptation as soon as it is presented; for we read that Christ was tempted several Ways, but he overcame the Tempter by resisting of him; the Apostle James saith, James iv. 7. Resist the Devil and he will flee from you: Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. It is to this holy

Light and Spirit, that lets People see the Evil, when it is presented, that we endeavour to turn the Minds of the Children of Men, that thereby they may be enabled to withstand the Enemy in all his Temptations; we read that the Nations of them which are saved, shall walk in the Light of the Lamb:

Rev. xxi. 23. 24. If we walk in the Light, saith John, as he is in the Light, we have Fellowship one with another, and the Blood of Jesus Christ his Son, cleanseth us from all Sin. If all that profess to be the Followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, did but walk in this Holy Light as they ought to do, they would shew forth Christianity in the Purity of it, and adorn the Doctrine of God our Saviour, by their Good and Holy Living; we read, The Light

John i. 5. shineth in Darknes and the Darknes comprehended it not. How many that are Strangers to this Holy Light which

God

God has caused to shine in Men's dark Hearts, have spoke Evil of it, and also of many that have born Testimony to it? We read that the Apostle Paul, was sent to turn Men from Darknes to Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God. And this is the great Labour now of those that are truly the Ministers of Christ, to turn the Children of Men to that true Light, which we read, lighteth every Man that cometh into the World. This John i. 9. Divine Light ought not to be rejected, nor the true Way of worshipping God despised; because they may be evilly spoken of by many that are ignorant of them: The Way in which the Apostle Paul worshipped God was by some that were Strangers to it, counted Heresy, and the Believers were accounted a Sect every were spoken against; and it was said Acts 24. 14. Ch. 28. 22. concerning Christ, Have any of the Rulers, or of the Pharisees, believed John vii. 48. on him? But this People, who know 49. not the Law are accursed. They were so Ignorant, that they counted those that believed in Christ accursed. Many of the Children of God have been evilly spoken of, by those that were Strangers to the Lord, Behold, saith John, what Manner of Love the Father hath 1 John iii. bestowed upon us, that we should be 1, 2. called the Sons of God, therefore the World knoweth us not, because it knew him not. He assigns the Reason, why the World knew them not, because, saith he, it knew him not: While Saul was ignorant of God, he persecuted his People; all his Learning and Scholarship did not give him the Knowledge of God. nor yet the Knowledge of his People ; And Saul yet breathing out Threatnings and Slaughter against the Disciples of the Lord, went unto the High-Priest, and desired of him Letters to Damascus, to the Synagogues, that if he found any of this Way, whether they were Men or Women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem ; and as he journeyed, he came near Damascus, and suddenly there shined round about him a Light from Heaven, and he heard a Voice saying, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me ? And he said, who art thou Lord ? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest : It is hard for thee to kick against the Pricks. It is to be feared, that many do not know that it is the Lord by his Spirit, that inwardly pricks them when they do amiss. Now here is the Ground of Persecution, when Men know not God, nor those that are truly his People, they persecute the true Worshipers of God as Hereticks. How many of the Martyrs in Queen Mary's Days, were persecuted, and put to Death as Hereticks, by those that were ignorant of God ? And how many of our Friends have been persecuted unto Death, by those that were Strangers to the Lord and his People ? But as it was of old, so it is now, he that is born after the Flesh, persecutes him that is born after the Spirit ; we read how Christ said to his Followers, If the World hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you : If ye were of the World, the World would love his own, but because ye are

It has often been the Lot of many of the Followers of Christ, to be persecuted and reviled, and evil spoken of; but our Saviour, to encourage his Disciples to bear Persecution and the Reproaches and Revilings of Men, saith, Blessed are ye when Men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all Manner of Evil against you, falsely for my Sake, rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is your Reward in Heaven, for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you. Although they that believed in Christ were accounted accursed by some, it was happy for them who did believe in, and receive him, to them he gave Power to become the Sons of God.

This is the great Blessing which they have, that receive Christ by his Spirit into their Hearts, as they are subject to him, they do not only receive Power to conquer their Lusts and Passions, but also to do the Will of God, and keep his Commands. But how many that are Strangers to the inward Appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ, by his Light and Spirit in Men's Hearts, have look'd upon it as strange Doctrine to preach Christ within. This is the Mystery which hath been hid from Ages and from Generations, but now is made manifest to his Saints, to whom God would make known, what is the Riches of the Glory of this Mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you the Hope of Glory. And when some of our Friends have born Testimony to that Divine Light which lighteth every Man that cometh into the World, many have made a Wonder of it, how the Light could be in Men; and have spoken slightly of the Spirit, although we read, as John i. 9. many as are led by the Spirit of God they are the Sons of God. If any

Rom. viii. 14. Man, (saith the Apostle,) hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

If Men have not this Spirit for their Guide, they cannot be Christians, nor Members of Christ's Church, although they may be strict in observing a great many outward Observations, for we read that in Christ Jesus, Gal. vi. 15. neither Circumcision, availeth any Thing, nor Uncircumcision, but a new Creature.

It is as Men come to be born of the Divine Nature, being created anew in Christ Jesus, unto good Works, that they come to have a right Understanding of the Things of God; I thank thee, O Father, said Christ, Lord

Mat. xi. 25. of Heaven and Earth, because thou hast hid these Things from the Wise and Prudent, and hast revealed them unto Babes.

Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy Sight. He that is truly a Child of God, and born of his Spirit, has a more true and sensible Knowledge of God, and also of the Mysteries of his Kingdom, than Men in their natural and unconverted State can attain unto, by all their Wisdom and Parts; for we read, that the natural

Man

Man receiveth not the Things of the Spirit of God, for they are Foolishness unto him, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. They are beyond his Reach and Comprehension, the Apostle saith, Prove all Things: hold fast that which is good. Now the way for Men to have a right and clear Discovery of the Truth, is to come to that Divine Light, which God has caused to shine in Men's Hearts; the Apostle saith, God, who commanded the Light to shine out of Darkness, hath shined in our Hearts to give the Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God, in the Face of Jesus Christ.

AND as the Lord by his Light, gives thee a Sight and Discovery of the Truth, I desire that thou may'st embrace it, and join with it; the Lord, saith the Prophet, bath shewed to thee, O Man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love Mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? Now the Lord by his Holy Light doth not only shew Men that which is good, and what he requires of them; but he is near to shew them that which is Evil, in its very first Appearance: He that shews to Man his Thoughts, saith the Prophet, the Lord of Hosts is his Name; the Apostle saith, Whatsoever makes manifest is Light, and whatsoever is reprov'd, is made manifest by the Light. Now this Holy Light which gives Men a Sight and Discovery of that which is Evil, when it is presented, is the great great Touch Stone that we desire all may come to. If Men do not take Heed to this, they may soon err in Judgment, and receive and embrace false Doctrine, and wrong Principles. And Men's receiving false and wrong Opinions, doth very much open a Door for wrong Practices. If Men once entertain a Belief, that there is no Possibility of their conquering and overcoming their Corruptions while here, what Encouragement is there for them to war against them? Or if they believe that there is a Purgatory, or a Place in which they may be cleansed from their sins after Death, it is no Wonder, if they live, so as to fulfil and gratify their own carnal Desires and Inclinations. But it is his Work that was a Lyar from the Beginning, to perswade Men to believe this; we do not read, that the rich Man, that we have an Account of in Luke, met with any Place of cleansing after Death. And if Men entertain a Belief that God has before ordained a great Part of Mankind to perish, and the rest to be saved; and that the Numbers are so fix'd, that none can be diminished from them that are to perish, or any added to the Number of them that are to be saved, what need any Body take any Care about another World: This Doctrine, doth very much destroy Religion and Christianity. I believe, some have been so darkened in their Understandings, that they have not stuck to say, that God has fore-ordained whatever comes to pass; that he has appointed the Murderer to murder, and the Thief to steal, that so they might consequently perish. How contrary

contrary is this Doctrine to what we read in the Holy Scripture, where the Lord has said, As I live I have no Pleasure in the Death of the Wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his Way and live. We read, that they have built the high Places of Tophet, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnon, to burn their Sons and Daughters in the Fire, yet saith the Lord, I commanded them not, neither came it into my Heart. Although this came to pass, the Lord was so far from ordaining it, that speaking after the manner of Men, he said, it came not into his Heart. It would be abominable to say, that God ordains all the wicked Things which come to pass. I wish that all would be careful how they are imposed upon, to receive any Doctrines, which are repugnant to the Doctrine of Christ, and the primitive Christians, recorded in the Holy Scriptures; and that People would compare their Doctrine with the Doctrine there laid down, and see how they correspond. It has pleased God to raise up a People to preach the same Doctrine, and bear the same Testimony, that the Apostles and primitive Christians bore, John saith, We are of God, he that knoweth God, beareth us; he that is not of God, beareth not us. I desire that none may reject the Truth, because it may be held forth by a People that are despised by many that do not rightly know them, for ye see your Calling, Brethren, how that not many wise Men after the Flesh, not many mighty,

mighty, not many noble, are called, but God hath chosen the foolish Things of the World to confound the Wise, and God hath chosen the weak Things of the World to confound Things which are Mighty, and base Things of the World, and Things which are despised, hath God chosen; yea, and Things which are not, to bring to nought Things that are, that no Flesh may glory in his Sight. Although the most of them that believed in, and received the Lord Jesus Christ, were not the wise, and mighty, and noble; yet we may conclude safely, that some of the wise, &c. did believe in him: And although the Generality of them, that are now come to believe in, and receive the Lord Jesus Christ in his spiritual Appearance, are not of the wise and noble; yet blessed be the Lord, some such are come to believe in, and receive Christ by his Spirit into their Hearts; and that all may thus receive him, is my sincere Desire.

I. Concerning the Universality of God's Love in sending his Son to die for all Men.

WE freely own, that it is the Duty of the Children of Men to believe in Christ, as he did outwardly appear; and we hold it to be absolutely needful, that they believe his Death and Sufferings, and what he has done for them, without them, where it has pleased God to afford them the Benefit of the Holy Scriptures, that declare thereof; yet we believe this outward Knowledge is not so absolutely utely essential to Salvation, but that Men may be saved by the Lord Jesus Christ, that suffered upon the Cross for them, if they are subject to his Spirit in their Hearts, although their Lots may be cast in those remote Parts of the World, where they are without the Benefit of the Holy Scriptures, and may know nothing of the Coming of Christ in the Flesh, for the Apostle Paul in the 5th of the Romans saith, As by the Offence of One, Judgment came upon all Men to Condemnation, even so by the Righteousness of One, the free Gift came upon all Men to Justification of Life; for as all Men partake of the Fruit of Adam's Fall, by Reason of that evil Seed, which through him is communicated unto them, which inclines them unto Evil, although many Thousands of them never heard of the Fall of Adam, nor of his Eating of the forbidden Fruit; so we believe many may, and do receive Benefit by the Lord Jesus Christ, as they take Heed to that divine Light and Grace, which is communicated to Mankind universally, through him, although they may know nothing of his Coming in the Flesh.

 Now though we hold it absolutely needful, that Men believe in the Death and Sufferings of Christ, where they have the Benefit of the Holy Scriptures that declare thereof, as is before observed; yet all this Knowledge will not entitle to a Part in the Kingdom of God, unless they know him that died for them, to save them out of those Things that unfit them for that Holy Kingdom, into which nothing that is unclean can enter.

But

BUT because we bear Testimony to the inward Appearance of the Lord Jesus John i. 9. Christ, by his Light and Spirit in Men's Hearts, some have been so unkind and unjust, that they have not stuck to say, that we deny'd the Lord Jesus Christ, that suffered without the Gates at Jerusalem for us, which is a very great Abuse upon us, for we firmly believe in him, that was born of the Virgin Mary, that suffered upon the Cross for the Redemption of Mankind universally ; and we are so far from denying him that died for us, and rose again, and ascended into Heaven, and is come again by his Spirit into our Hearts, that we hold forth his Death and Sufferings in a far more extensive Manner, than many others do ; for a great many will have it, that Christ only died for the Believers, and a Part of Mankind ; but we believe according to the Scripture, that he tasted Death for every Man. But we see

Heb. ii. 9. Jesus, who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the Suffering of Death, crowned with Glory and Honour, that he by the Grace of God should taste Death for every Man. My little Children, these

1 John ii. 1, 2. Things write I unto you, that ye sin not ; and if any Man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous : And he is the Propitiation for our Sins, and not for ours only, but also for the Sins of the whole World. Here is the wonderful Love of God set forth to Mankind universally, therefore, as by the Offence of one, Rom. v. 17. Judgment came upon all to Condemnation ; ion ; even so by the Righteousness of one, the free Gift came upon all Men to Justification of Life : So that the Plaster is as broad as the Sore. Now although we believe, that Christ has by his offering up of himself once for all, cleared the Score, so far upon the Account of Infants and Mankind in general, that no Man will perish because of the Sin of Adam ; yet we do not believe that the Death and Sufferings of Christ without the Gates of Jerusalem, will render Men justified, and acceptable in the Sight of God ; except they know him that died for them, to redeem them out of actual Sinning, and from those Things that unfit them for the Kingdom of God. Know ye not, saith the Apostle, that the Unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God ? Be not deceived ; neither Fornicators, nor ^{1 Cor. vi. 9,} Idolaters, nor Adulterers, nor Effeminate, ^{10, 11.} nor Abusers of themselves with Mankind, nor Thieves, nor Covetous, nor Drunkards, nor Revilers, nor Extortioners, shall inherit the Kingdom of God ; and such were some of you, but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the Spirit of our God. Here the Apostle has clearly set forth how Men are justified.

 Now this is what we are concerned for, that all People may come to know the Lord to work a Change in their Hearts, and wash them by his Spirit. He saved us by the washing of Regeneration, and the renewing of the Holy Ghost, which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Saviour. Now here is Salvation and Justification by Christ, upon a true and right Foundation; And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his Name Jesus, for he shall save his People from their Sins.
 Matt. i. 21. Mark, that Salvation from Sin is the Way for Men to be saved by Christ, from the Wrath to come; for we read, that Tribulation and Anguish will be upon every Soul of Rom. ii. 9, Man that doth Evil, of the Jew first, viii. 1. and also of the Gentile. There is therefore now no Condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit, As Men come to witness a being washed and sanctified, and brought into Christ, and know their abiding to be in him, they are redeemed out of those Things that bring Condemnation.

If any Man be in Christ, he is a new Creature, Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not. We know, that whosoever is born of God, 1 John iii. 6. sinneth not, but he that is begotten of 1 John v. 18. God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the Witness in himself. This is the Sum of all, for Men so to live, that they may have the Witness in themselves, that they please God. We read concerning Enoch, that before he was translated, he had this Testimony, that he pleased 1 John iii. God. If our Heart condemn us, God us not, then have we Confidence towards God.

 Friendly Reader, whoever thou art, that art condemned and reprov'd in thy self, for that which is Evil, I tenderly desire, thou may'st turn to that Holy Spirit, which doth inwardly reprove thee for it: If I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you, John xvi. but if I depart, I will send him unto 7. 8.

you, and when he is come, he will reprove the World of Sin. The same Holy Spirit that re-proves Men for Sin, will not only give them Power over those Things that they are overcome with, which are evil, if they take heed unto it, but as they come out of those Things, they are reprov'd for, it will be a Divine Comforter to them, and they will be inwardly justified in themselves: We read, that the Grace of God, that bringeth Salvation, hath appeared to all Men, teaching us, that Tit. ii. 11, denying Ungodliness, and worldly 12, 13.

Lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present World, looking for that blef-sed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all Iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar Pea-ple, zealous of good Works. Now although the Apostle has here so excellently born Testimony to the Sufficiency and Universality of the Grace of God, many are so narrow, that they are not willing to own, that Christ has died for all, nor will they allow, that saving Grace is given to all, altho' we read, that a Manifestation of the Spirit is given to every Man, to profit withal.

And in the Parable of the Sower, that went forth to sow, the Seed fell on all the four sorts of Ground, but it did not bring forth Fruit to Perfection, save only in the good Ground; and the unprofitable Servant had a Talent committed to him, which was sufficient for him, if he had but improved it; 'tis plain, that the Fault was in himself, so that if any Man perish, he is the Cause of his own Destruction, as it was said of Israel, O Israel, thou hast destroyed thy self, but thy Help is in me! God gave them of his good Spirit to instruct them, but they rebelled against him.

 Neh. ix. 20, 26.

Many for want of a right Understanding, have made a very wrong Use of Paul's Words in the 9th of the Romans, For the Children being not yet born, neither having done any Good or Evil, that the Purpose of God according to Election might stand, not of Works, but of him that calleth, it was said unto her, the Elder shall serve the Younger; as it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. Now the Apostle doth not say, that before the Children were born, it was said, Jacob have I loved, and Esau have I hated, but that the Elder shall serve the Younger; and as 'tis written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated, He has Reference to what is written: Read Obadiah, for thy Violence against thy Brother Obad. i. 10. Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever. If God had hated Esau, and ordained Pharoah to perish before they were born, he would have been a Respector Righteousness, is accepted with him. Here are the Conditions laid down, upon which all People may be accepted of God, for we believe, as it is the Will of God, that all Men should be saved, so he gives to every Man a Day of Visitation, in which he inwardly strives with them, by his Holy Spirit to reclaim them: He strove long with the People in the old World, And the Lord said, my Spirit shall not always strive with Man, because Gen. vi. 3. he also is Flesh. There was a Time in which they might have been saved, but they would not be reclaimed, from those Things that were displeasing to him, therefore he cut them off in his Wrath; and there was also a Time in which the Inhabitants of Jerusalem might have been gathered, but they would not, and our Saviour wept over them and said, O Jerusalem! Jerusalem, Thou that killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered Matt. xxiii. ed thy Children together, even as a 37, 38.

Hen gathereth her Chickens under her Wings, and ye would not! Behold, your House is left unto you desolate. Christ did not say, they could not be gathered, but said, ye would not; so that the Cause why they were not gathered, was not in the Lord, but in themselves; but if God by a secret Decree had beforehand determin'd their Destruction, why should he have sent his Servants to them, in order that they might be gathered; and what will People make of our Saviour's weeping over them, if they were before ordained inevitably to perish. I wish all may consider these Things seriously, the Apostle saith, What if God, willing to shew his Wrath, and to make his Power struction of the old World; but let it be con-sider'd, that they brought this upon themselves, by their rebelling against him; for why should the Lord have striven with the old World, if he had determined their Destruction beforehand. Friendly Reader, I desire the Lord may open thy Understanding by his Holy Spirit, that thou may'st have a right discerning of these Things, Peter saith, Account also in all his Epistles, speaking in them of these Things, in which are some Things hard to be unstable, wrest, at they do also the other Scriptures, unto their own Destruction. Peter did not mean, that it was those that were outwardly unlearn-unlearned in the School of Christ, that did and do wrest Paul's Words; and if People do not come to learn of Christ, it is no wonder if they put wrong and gross Constructions upon many Places of the Holy Scriptures; but altho' this Place has been made very ill use of by many, the Apostle Paul doth give ample and full Testimony of the good Will of God to Mankind, I exhort, saith he, therefore, that first of all, Supplications, 1 Tim. ii.

 Prayers, Intercessions and giving of Thanks, be made for all Men; for Kings, and for all that are in Authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable Life, in all Godliness and honesty; for this is good and acceptable in the Sight of God, our Saviour, who will have all Men to be saved, and to come unto the Knowledge of the Truth. If the Apostle had believed that a Part of Mankind were ordained to perish, before they were born, he would not have advised Timothy to pray for all Men, nor have told him, that it was the Will of God, that all Men should be saved: So that if any Man perish, as is before observed, the Fault is in himself, say unto them, as I live saith the Lord God, I have no Pleasure in the Death of the Wicked, but that the Wicked turn from his Way and live. When I shall say to the Righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own Righteousness, and commit Iniquity, all his Righteousness shall not be remembred, but for his Iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it. Again, when I say unto the Wicked, thou shalt surely die, if he turn from his Sin, and do that which is lawful and right, if the wicked restore the Pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the Statutes of Life, without committing Iniquity, he shall surely live, he shall not die. I wish that all might seriously consider this, and that all who think they stand, and are secure, may take Heed lest they fall; and that they who have gone into evil Things, may be encouraged to return to the Lord, by true Repentance and Amendment of Life, that they may find Mercy at his Hand, as the Prophet saith, Let the Wicked forsake his Way, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, and let them return unto the Lord, and he will have Mercy, and to our God, and he will will abundantly pardon. We are not of their Mind, that say, once in Grace, and ever in Grace, or that the least Degree of true and saving Grace cannot be fallen from ; but we believe Men may now, as some of old did, make Shipwrack of Faith and a good Conscience, and from what is before said, it is plain that a righteous Man may turn from his Righteousness, therefore it is good for all to be watchful : What say I to you, said Christ to his Followers, I say to all, Watch. No Man is longer safe than he is upon his watch. It was when David and Peter were off their watch that they fell, and the Miscarriages that are among the Children of Men, are owing to their Unwatchfulness ; not but that we believe, the Grace and good Spirit of God is sufficient to keep Men from falling and sinning, and out of all Evil and hurtful Things, as they take Heed unto it ; unto which Grace, Friendly Reader, I commend thee for Safety and Preservation.

2. Concerning the Holy Scriptures.

ALTHO' some have misrepresented us, as tho' we undervalued or dis-esteem'd the Holy Scriptures, of the Old and New Testament ; yet we do bless the Lord, and have great Cause so to do, that the excellent Counsel therein contained, which proceeded from the Spirit of God, is preserved upon Record to this Day, and it is a great Favour, that we live

live under a Government, where we have the Liberty to read them, this being a Priviledge that many called Christians are deprived of, in some other Countries, and I wish that all would be frequent in reading of them : The Apostle Paul commended Timothy, in that from a Child wise unto Salvation, thro' Faith, which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by Inspiration of God, and is profitable for Doctrine, for Reproof, for Correction, for Instruction in Righteousness, that the Man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good Works. Search the Scriptures, saith

John v. 39, Christ, for in them ye think ye have testify of me, and ye will not come to me that ye might have Life. They are greatly to be valued, in that they testify of Christ, in whom there is Power to give Men Victory over their Corruptions and Passions, and enable them to do the Will of God; we read, that Christ came unto his own, and his own received can do all Things, saith the Apostle, by the Will of Man, but holy Men of God, spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Now we say, the most true Interpreter of the Holy Scriptures, is the Holy Ghost, or Spirit from which they did proceed ; we read, that the natural Man receives not the Things of the Spirit of God, neither can he know them, saith the Text, and there is a strong Reason laid down for it, because they are spiritually discerned ; they are beyond his Reach and Comprehension, for what Man knoweth the Things of a Man, save the Spirit ^{1 Cor. ii. 11.} of a Man which is in him ; even so the Things of God knoweth no Man, but the Spirit of God. This is the Key which opens the Mysteries of the Kingdom of God to Men. I take this to be the great Reason why there are such great Mistakes about Religion, and why many put such gross Constructions upon many Parts of the Holy Scriptures, as they do, because they do not come to that Divine Spirit which gives a right and true Understanding, as Elibu said, there is a Spirit in Man, and the Inspiration of the Almighty giveth them ^{Job, xxxii. 8.} Understanding. Till Men come to the Holy Spirit of God in themselves, they can neither know God, nor the Things of God ; for we read, that no Man knoweth the Father save the Son, and he, to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. ^{Mat. xi. 27.} Now if Revelation were ceased, as some do imagine it is, what a sad Condition would Mankind be in ? For we read, that the World by Wisdom knows knows not God, there is no Knowledge of God but by the Revelation of his Son ; and it is as Men come to have an inward Knowledge of God, that they come to have a right Understanding of the Holy Scriptures, which proceeded from the good Spirit of God, wherefore we highly value them, though 'tis to be feared, some called Christians, do dis-believe many of the great Truths therein contained, for I believe, that a Man, through often rebelling against the Holy Spirit of God in himself, may arrive to such a Degree of Wickedness, that he may reject the Scriptures, and count them but Fables ; and may be so far from owning of any Thing of God in Man, as to deny the Lord that bought him ; and according to, Psalm xvi. 1. He may say in his Heart there is no God. It is the Work of the Enemy of all Righteousness, to perswade Men that there is no God, and that the Scriptures are but a Fiction, and that Men are not accountable for their Words and Actions, and that there are no future Rewards and Punishments ; that they might walk at large, and take their full Swing in Wickedness. It is greatly to be desired if there be any such now living, whose Day of Mercy is not wholly over, that have arrived to such a Degree of Hardness and Wickedness as this is, that they may be brought to a sense of their Iniquity and Error, and be so truly humbled in Soul because thereof, that if possible, they might find Mercy at the Lord's Hand. The better Christian that any

Man is, the more true and real Value he has for the Holy Scriptures.

3. Concerning Worship.

WE live in a Time, in which there is great Difference, even amongst those called Christians, about Religion and the Worship of God. Difference about Religion and the Worship of God, is no new Thing, the Jews and Samaritans differ'd to such a great Degree, that it seems they did not deal with one another. It is very much amiss, where Religion sowers People, and makes them rigid, and bitter one against another. Christianity is Love and he that is a Christian in his Heart, is full of Pity and good Will to them that are under a Mistake in Matters of Religion ; and the worst that he wishes for all such, is, that the Lord may direct them right ; for they that have the Mind of Christ, would not have any Soul to err, either in Faith or Practice. Our Saviour in his Discourse with the Woman of Samaria, has clearly described the true and spiritual Worship, But the Hour cometh, and now is, when the True Worshipers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in Truth ; for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in Spirit and in Truth. John iv. 23. 24.

Now we believe that as God is a Spirit, he may be truly worshipped, as we are gathered in his Spirit knows not God, there is no Knowledge of God but by the Revelation of his Son ; and it is as Men come to have an inward Knowledge of God, that they come to have a right Understanding of the Holy Scriptures, which proceeded from the good Spirit of God, wherefore we highly value them, though 'tis to be feared, some called Christians, do dis-believe many of the great Truths therein contained, for I believe, that a Man, through often rebelling against the Holy Spirit of God in himself, may arrive to such a Degree of Wickedness, that he may reject the Scriptures, and count them but Fables ; and may be so far from owning of any Thing of God in Man, as to deny the Lord that bought him ; and according to, *Psalms xvi. 1. WE live in a Time, in which there is great Difference, even amongst those called Christians, about Religion and the Worship of God. Difference about Religion and the Worship of God, is no new Thing, the Jews and Samaritans differ'd to such a great Degree, that it seems they did not deal with one another. Now we believe that as God is a Spirit, he may be truly worshipped, as we are gathered in his Spirit

Spirit, tho' there be not a Word outwardly spoken amongst us, as Christ said, Where two Matt. xviii. or three are gathered together in my 20. Name, there am I in the midst of them, Isa. xl. 31. and the Holy Prophet saith, They that wait upon the Lord, shall renew their Strength : They shall mount up with Wings as Eagles ; they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint : Although I believe a great many pious good Christians can say, as they have waited humbly upon the Lord, in the true Silence of all Flesh, with their Minds truly staid upon him, they have enjoyed that Divine Comfort which has been beyond what they could express in Words ; yet this of silent waiting, is a great Mystery to many People. There is a Divine Teacher near Men, even in their own Hearts, which is sufficient to teach them, as they take heed thereto. It is to be feared, that many People too much depend upon the Teachings of Men, and neglect the Divine Teacher in themselves, but the Anointing which ye have 1 John ii. 27. received of him, abideth in you, and ye need not that any Man teach you, but as the same Anointing teacheth you, of all Things, and is Truth and is no Lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

Now we understand the holy Man here, to speak in a large Sense. He told them that they needed not that any Man taught them, but as the same Anointing taught them, &c.
 We do very much own outward Preaching and Praying,

Praying, where it proceeds from this divine Anointing. If it please God to speak by this through any Instruments, whether Male or Female, we believe there should be Liberty amongst us, for every one to speak as he requires it of them; for ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted, and the Spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets. And they were filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other Tongues, as the Spirit gave them Utterance. We believe the true Preaching and Praying is that which proceeds from the holy Spirit, we know not what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit itself maketh Intercession for us, with Groanings which cannot be uttered. I will pray with the Spirit, and I will pray with the Understanding also: I will sing with the Spirit, and I will sing with the Understanding also.

1 Cor. xiv. 31. 32.
Acts ii. 4.
Rom. 8. 26.
1 Cor. xiv. 15.

THIS is the Preaching and Praying, and Singing, which we own, that is, by the Direction and Assistance of the holy Spirit. Now some being against Women's speaking in the Church, urge what the Apostle saith, Let your Women keep Silence in the Churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak, but they are commanded to be under Obedience, as also saith the Law, and if they will learn any Thing, let them ask their Husbands at Home, for it is a Shame for Women to speak in the Church. Let the Woman learn

1 Cor. xiv. 34. 35.

1 Tim. ii. learn in Silence, with all Subjection, but I suffer not a Woman to teach, nor to usurp Authority over the Man, but to be in Silence. We do not take this to be a prohibiting of holy Women to speak, whom the Lord calls thereto, and I think it would be very much amiss, to say that the Apostle Paul was against holy Women speaking, whom God called to speak: But such troublesome and unruly Women, as disturbed the Church by their Questions, and usurp'd Authority over the Man, which he was against, we are against. If the Apostle Paul had been against holy Women Praying and Prophefying, why should he lay down a Rule how they ought to behave themselves when they Pray or Prophecy, but every Woman that Prayeth or

And he advised his true Yokefellow, to help those Women, which laboured with him in the Gospel; so that he was an Encourager of holy Women that laboured in the Gospel; we read, that Anna spoke in the Temple, and she was a Widow of about fourscore and four Years,

 38. but served God with Fastings and Prayers, Night and Day; and she coming in that Instant, gave Thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him, to all them that looked for Redemption in Jerusalem. And we read, that Philip the Evangelist had four Daughters, Virgins, and they did all prophesy. And Joel also prophesied that God would pour forth of his Spirit, &c. But this is that saith Peter, which was spoken by the Prophet Joel, and it shall come to pass in the last Days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all Flesh, and your Sons and your Daughters shall prophesy, and your young Men shall see Visions, and your old Men shall dream Dreams, and on my Servants, and on my Hand-maidens, I will pour out in those Days of my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. Now altho' prophesying is several Times taken in the Scripture for foretelling Things to come, read Jeremiab, and several other Prophecies of the Prophets; yet it is also taken for edifying the Church, But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto Men to Edification, and Exhortation, and Comfort. He that speaketh in an unknown Tongue, edifieth himself, but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church. Mary was sent by Christ to declare of his Resurrection, Jesus saith unto her, touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father; but go to my Brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father, and to my God, and your God. And the Woman of Samaria was instrumental to bring many of her Neighbours to believe in Christ, she said, Come see a Man that has told me all Things that

And many of the Samaritans of that City believed on him, for the Saying of the Woman, which testified, he told me all that ever I did. Now it is to Christ as he inwardly appears in Men's Hearts, by his Light and Spirit, that we desire all may come. It is he that shews Men when they do amiss. Christ with-

4. Concerning Baptism.

BECAUSE of our difuse of Water-Baptism, and Bread and Wine, we have been very hardly spoke of, as though we denied the Ordinances of Jesus Christ, when as there is no People that I know of, that do more truly own the Necessity of believing and being baptized, than we do, but we do not understand it to be only an historical Belief of the Conception and Birth, and Life and Miracles, and also of the Death and Sufferings, and Resurrection, rection, and Ascension of Christ, or a being outwardly baptized with Water, that will entitle Men to Salvation; for we read, that Simon the Sorcerer believed, and was baptized; and yet he was so far from ^{Acts 8. 13.} from being in a State of Salvation, ^{23.} that Peter said to him, I perceive thou art in the Gall of Bitterness, and in the Bond of Iniquity. But lest any should be under a Mistake, and take the Baptism of Water, to be the one essential and saving Baptism, hear the Apostle Peter, When once the long-suffering of God, waited in the Days of Noah, while the Ark was preparing, wherein few ^{1 Peter iii. 20. 21.} that is, eight Souls were saved by Water. The Antitype whereof, even Baptism, doth also now save us, not the putting away of the Filth of the Flesh (mark that) but the Answer of a good Conscience towards God, by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Now it is the Baptism of Christ by his Spirit, that brings Men to that, for it is plain, from the Instance of Simon before noted, that a Man may believe, and be baptized with Water, and be so far from having the Answer of a good Conscience, that he may be in the Gall of Bitterness, and in the Bond of Iniquity, which is the very Reverse of Christianity. A great many take the Commission in the 28th of Matthew, to be a Commission for Water-Baptism, Goye therefore, and teach all Nations, baptizing them in ^{Mat. 28. 29.} the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Now here is no mention of Water. Is it not reasonable to suppose suppose, that if our dear Lord had intended that they should baptize with Water, that he would have expressly mention'd it; altho' the Apostle Paul was not inferior to the chief of the Apostles, he said, I thank God, that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and baptized in mine own Name; and I baptized also the Household of Stephanas, besides I know not whether I baptized any other; for Christ sent me NOT to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: So that what he did in that Case, was by way of Condescension, as in the case of circumcising Timothy, and going into the Temple, and purifying himself.

It would be a weak Thing to plead for these things now, because the Apostle practised them. Doth it therefore follow, that Water-Baptism should be practised now, because the Apostle Paul, by Way of Condescension practised it? For if he had took that Commission, Mat. xxviii. 19. to be a Commission for him to baptize with outward Water, we may safely conclude, that he would not have thank'd God that he had done him so little Service. We do not deny but that some other of the Apostles, did also by Way of Condescension, practise Water-Baptism; but that they were commanded to baptize with Water in that Commission, I think, will be too hard for any Body to prove.

Mat. 28. 19.

It is possible some may be ready to say, it must needs be meant of Water; because say they no Man can baptize with the Spirit, or into the

the Power and Spirit of Christ. We freely own, that no Man, as he is Man, by his own Power, can do this; neither can any Man by his own Power, as he is a Man, heal the Sick, cleanse the Lepers, raise the Dead, cast out Devils, Mat. 10. 8. and yet we find the Disciples were commanded to do these Things. And by the same Power, by which they did cast out many Devils, and heal'd the Sick, &c. they were instrumental to baptize Men into the Name and Power of Christ. And as I began to speak, saith Peter, the Holy Ghost fell on them as on us at the Beginning. Acts xi. 15. Then remembred I the Word of the 16. Lord, how that he said, John truly baptized with Water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. At that great Meeting we read of in the 2d of Acts, ver. 4. 'tis said, They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other Tongues as the Spirit gave them Utterance; yet some of the Multitude mocked, and were so ignorant of the Operation of the Holy Ghost, that they said, ver. 13. These Men are full of new Wine: But Peter standing up with the Eleven, lift up his Voice, and said unto them, ye Men of Judah, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my Words, for these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third Hour of the Day, but this that which was spoken by the Prophet Joel, &c. It is hard to make Men sensible of the Operation of the Holy Ghost, and of the spiritual Baptism, while they are Strangers to the Spirit in themselves; but if it could be proved, that the Disciples in that Commission, were commanded to baptize with, or in Water, which I believe cannot be done; how will they that are for the sprinkling of Infants, prove their Practice from that Commission, Go teach all Nations, &c. for they are not capable of being taught. As to what is urged of the Jailor, and all his, and of whole Families being baptized; there is no Account that there were any Infants baptized in any of them. There is abundance of Families now as (we may reasonably suppose) there were then, in which there are no little Children. As to that of our Saviour, where he saith, Suffer little Children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom, it cannot be proved from Scripture, that he baptized any of them in, or with Water. But as to this Practice of sprinkling Infants, it is so much without Foundation in the Scripture, that a great many People who are not of our Society, do not hold it nor own it. The Way rightly to understand this Commission, is to come to that Spirit, by which it was given forth. Many urge, that our Saviour was baptized of John, he was also circumcised, doth it therefore follow, that we must be circumcised, because he was circumcised; for as he was born under the Law, he fulfilled the Law, and he is the End of the Law, for Righteousness Sake, to all them that believe. When Christ came to John to be baptized of him, John forbid him, saying, I have Need to be baptized for he is like a Refiner's Fire, and like Fuller's Soap: And he shall sit as a Refiner and Purifier of Silver, and he shall purify the Sons of Levi, and purge them as Gold and Silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an Offering in Righteousness. For this End the Lord Jesus Christ is come into the Hearts of Men, by his Spirit, to purge them from their Dross, and wash them from their Uncleanness, that so they may be fitted for that Kingdom, into which nothing that is unclean can enter; this is the Washing which will avail, for Men to know their Hearts to be washed from Wickedness; as it was said to Jerusalem, Wash thy Heart from Wickedness:

Eph. iv. 5. The Apostle Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians, saith, that there is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism. John, as is before observed, has distinguished very plainly between his Baptism with Water, and the Baptism of Christ with the Holy Ghost. Now, what we desire is, that all might come to the Baptism of the Spirit, which the Apostles and primitive Christians witnessed, who could say,

By one Spirit are we all baptized into one Body, whether we be Jews or 1 Cor. xii. 13.

Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have all been made to drink into one Spirit,

Gal. iii. 27. (this is the one Baptism) For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ. Now this is the Sum of all, for Men to put on the Lord Jesus Christ, the new and heavenly Man, then they will witness inward Communion with the Lord.

BUT why are many of our sober Neighbours so strenuous for Water Baptism, and yet neglect to wash one anothers Feet, when as we read, John 13. ver. 1, to 14. that our Saviour wash'd the Disciples Feet, and he told them, that he had given them an Example, that as he had done to them, so they should do to one another: Now here is both Example and Precept

Precept for this ; and if we ask many sober People, why they are not in the Practice of this ? I presume many would be ready to answer, that they look upon it to be but an outward and visible Sign, by which our Saviour shew'd his Followers, that they ought to serve one another, and be ready to do the meanest Offices of Love if need require : And that they do not hold the ceremonious Part of washing one anothers Feet, to be obligatory upon them, as long as they come to the spiritual Part of what was thereby signify'd, although we find that this was practised by our Saviour ; now, why they should lay such Strefs upon Water-Baptism, which we cannot find was ever practised by our Saviour, and drop this, deserves their serious Consideration : But as we disuse Water-Baptism, so we do also disuse the ceremonious Part of washing one anothers Feet, being sensible that they who are come to the spiritual Part of what was thereby signify'd, are come to the End of the outward and visible Signs.

5. Concerning the Supper.

ALTHO' we disuse the outward Bread and Wine, we do very truly own the spiritual Supper of the Lord, which is spoken of in the Revelations, Behold, I stand at the Door and knock ; if any Man Rev. 3. 20. bear my Voice, and open the Door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. It is what we desire, that all religious well well minded People, who conscientiously receive the outward Bread and Wine, may open the Door of their Hearts, and receive the Lord Jesus Christ by his Spirit, that so they may know an inward Supping with him, in his Kingdom; for we read, the Kingdom

1 John i. 3.

to you, that ye also may have Fellowship with us; and truly, our Fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. They were People of blessed Experience, and it is what we desire, that the Children of Men might might come to witness this in themselves ; for they that are come to have Fellowship with the Father, and with the Son, are come to the End of the outward Bread and Wine, even to the Glory of the Gospel Dispensation, which is a Dispensation of Enjoyment ; for as Men are inwardly reconciled, and brought into Favour with God, they come to know a feeding of that Divine and living Bread which comes down from Heaven ; I am, (said Christ) the living Bread which came down from Heaven ; if any Man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever ; and the Bread that I will give, is my Flesh, which I will give for the Life of the World. He that eateth my Flesh, and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. It is as Men witness this, that they can speak from their own Experience, what a blessed Thing it is to have inward Communion with Christ. It is the great Blessing of Wisdom's Children, that she brings them to the Substance ; I Wisdom lead in the Way of Righteousness, in the midst of the Paths of Judgment, that I may cause those that love me, to inherit Substance ; and I will fill their Treasures. Reader, this is what is desired for thee, that thou mayest come to the Substance, that so thou mayest know a Feeding of that divine and spiritual Bread which can only satisfy the Soul, and a Drinking of the Wine of the Kingdom ; but it is hard to make the natural Man sensible of these Things ; they are beyond his Reach and Comprehension. When our Saviour told Nicodemus,

John 6. 15.

Prov. viii.
20. 21.

Nicodemus, that except a Man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God; Nicodemus saith unto him, how can a Man be born when he is old; can he enter the second Time into his Mother's Womb, and be born. Notwithstanding that he was a Ruler of the Jews, he argues very grossly, and how many, when we have born Testimony to the inward Appearance of the Lord Jesus Christ, by his Light and Spirit in Men's Hearts, have made very strange of it, and being ready to say, how can this be? And when we have spoken of Men's having inward Fellowship with the Father, and with his Son, while they are upon the Earth, many cannot understand how this can be, although the primitive Christians had it in their own Experience, as is before observed. The Apostle saith, neither Circumcision availeth any Thing, nor Gal. vi. 15. Uncircumcision, but a New Creature.

It doth not avail in the Sight of God, whether a Man be baptized with Water; or not baptized with Water; or whether he receives the Bread and Wine, or doth not receive it, if he be not a new Creature; we read, If any Man be in Christ, he is a new Creature, 2Cor. v. 17. and as is before observed, Except a Man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God: We greatly desire, that all People might have this in their own Experience, that so they might walk as becomes the Children of God, and manifest themselves to be the Followers and Disciples of Christ, by their living agreeably to his Doctrine; for I count that is the greatest outward visible Sign, that any Man can give, that he is truly a Christian, and a Member of Christ's Church, for him to live agreeably to the Doctrine of Christ; by this, said our Saviour, shall all Men know, that ye are my Disciples, if you love one another. Now to love one another, to love our Enemies, to do good for Evil, to forgive Injuries, to be just and merciful, and walk humbly, as Christians ought to do, are good outward visible Signs; but we believe no outward Observations will make Men Christians, and Members of that pure Church Eph. v. 27. which Christ came to present to God, without Spot or Wrinkle, or any such Thing; (but that it should be holy and without Blemish,) if they do not know the Lord to work a Change in their Hearts, and redeem them out of those things which unfit them for his holy Kingdom. The Apostle saith, He is not a Jew that is one outwardly, neither is that Circumcision, which is outward Rom. ii. 28, 29, in the Flesh, but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and Circumcision is that of the Heart, in the Spirit, and not in the Letter, whose Praise is not of Men, but of God. As a Man's being outwardly circumcised, and observing a great many Jewish Rites and Ceremonies, did not make him a true and real Jew, if he was not one in his Heart; so it may be truly said, he is not a Christian, that is only one outwardly, although he has been outwardly baptiz'd, and received the Bread and Wine, and observed a great many outward Observations. If he is not not one in his Heart, all his outward Observations will not render him acceptable in the Sight of God. What availed all the Jews outward Observations, while they lived in those Things that displeased the Lord; He that killeth an Ox, is as if he slew a Man; an Oblation, as if he offered Swine's Blood, he that burneth Incense, as if he blessed an Idol: Yea, they have chosen their own Ways, and their Soul delighteth in their Abominations. I also will chuse their Delusions, and will bring their Fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake they did not hear; but they did Evil before mine Eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. Here is the Reason laid down, why the Lord was angry with them. These Things afford great Instruction and Caution, and I desire that all may learn from what such brought upon themselves, through their chusing their own Ways, and delighting in their Abominations, to beware of doing the like; but they that are Christ's, and Christians in reality, are crucified to the World, with the Affections and Lusts thereof; and we desire that all who are called Christians may demonstrate themselves to be such, by their so doing, that they may witness the spiritual Communion and Supper here spoken of. There are many religious People, particularly in Holland, who do not profess to be of our Society, though they do not clearly see beyond the Use of Water-Baptism, and Bread and Wine, do join with us in opposing Swearing upon any Account; because they are convinced, that all Swearing is forbidden by Christ, But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by Heaven, for it is God's Throne, nor by the Earth, for it is his Footstool, neither by Jerusalem, for it is the City of the great King, neither shalt thou swear by thy Head, because thou canst not make one Hair white or black, but let your Communication be yea, yea; nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these, cometh of Evil. And the Apostle James saith, But above all Things, my Brethren, swear not; neither by Heaven, neither by the Earth; neither by any other Oath; but let your yea be yea, and your nay nay, lest you fall into Condemnation. They are also one with us in opposing Fighting, because they look upon it to be contrary to his Doctrine, that taught his Followers to love their Enemies; But I say unto you, love your Enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you. They are of our Minds, that the Ministry should be free; for they look upon it to be contrary to Christ's Doctrine, for Men to preach for Hire, and worldly Ends, who said to his Ministers, freely ye have received, freely give; and they are likewise one with us, in holding forth the universal Love of God to all Men. Now although there be many that are purely conscientious for the Use of Water-Baptism, and Bread and Wine, we have a great deal of Charity for all such; for many that are now join'd in Society with us, were once as much for the Use of those Things, as many well-minded People now are, and as the Lord has mercifully brought many of us, in a good Degree, to witness the spiritual Baptism and Supper, we desire that others might be brought to the Experience thereof in themselves; and he that witnesses the Substance of what many allow that Water-Baptism, and Bread and Wine to be but outward and visible Signs of, is come to the End of the Signs; for I hope, I may be safe in saying, all Signs end in their Substance. Now as we have Charity for all them, who do conscientiously use these Things, we think they ought to have Charity for us, if we disuse them; because we believe they are ceased in Point of Rom. 14. 23. Obligation; and we read, that whatsoever is not of Faith, is Sin.

 and

and.

6. Concerning Perfection.

THIS Doctrine of Perfection seems very strange and novel, to many that witness but little Victory in themselves, over their Lusts and Passions; and the Enemy of Man's Happiness, has perswaded many People to believe, that there is no Possibility of overcoming their Corruptions and Sins, while they are here upon the Earth, that so they may be quiet and easy in them, or of doing God's Will, and keeping his Commands, that so they may not not endeavour for it. Now we believe, that God's Ways are equal, Is not my Ez. 18. 25.

Way, saith the Lord, equal? God is just in all his Doings, and requires no more of Men, than he gives them Ability to perform. If God did require that of Men, which they were not able, neither of themselves, nor by any Grace received to perform, then it might be said, that his Ways were unequal, and that he was an hard Master, but that would be abominable to charge upon the Almighty, who is full of Justice and Equity. The wise Man saith, Fear God, and keep his Ecc. 12. 13.

Commandments, for this is the whole

Duty of Man. Now if God requires this of Men, as to be sure he doth, then there is a Possibility of it, or else, as is before observed, his Ways are unequal; but it is far from the Children of God, to charge him with Injustice. The disobedient and rebellious People of Israel said, that the way of the Lord was not equal, Yet saith the House of Israel, the Way of the Lord is not equal: O House of Ex. 18. 29.
Israel, are not my Ways equal? Are not your Ways unequal? Therefore I 30.

will judge you, O House of Israel, every Man according to his Ways, saith the Lord God; repent, and turn your selves from all your Transgressions, so Iniquity shall not be your Ruin. Now Reader from this thou may'st gather what sort of People they were, that said the way of the Lord was not equal; and we read in the Parable of the Talents, that it was the unprofitable Servant that complained of his Lord; Then

Mat. 25. 24. he which had received the one Talent, came and said, Lord, I knew thee, that thou art an hard Man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed.

Now we do not read, that the good Servants that had improved the Talents, complained of their Lord. But we freely own, that no meer Man of himself, by his own Power, as he is a Man, can do the Will of God, and keep his Commands; yet we believe there is Power in that divine Grace, that the Apostle faith, has appeared to all Men, to enable them to overcome those Things which are evil, and to do that which is well pleasing to God, for the Grace of God, that bringeth Salvation, Tit. ii. 11. hath appeared to all Men, teaching us that denying Ungodliness and worldly Lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present World. Here is both the Universality and Sufficiency of it, excellently set forth by the Apostle, My Grace, faith the Lord to the Apostle, is sufficient for thee; although we freely own, that we are weak of our selves, as Men, and cannot by our own Power do any Thing that is good, as Christ said, Without me you can do nothing; yet we say, there is Power and Sufficiency in the Grace of God, to enable Men to do his Will, and keep his Commands, as they take heed unto it, I am able, faith the Apostle, through Christ, who strengthens me, to do all Things.

It doth not consist with the Wisdom of the Holy Holy Ghost, that those gracious Promises which are made conditionally, upon Men's overcoming, and doing the Commands of God, should be made if there was no Possibility of it ; as, He that overcomes, shall inherit all Things, and I will be his God and he shall be my Son. He that over- Rev. xxi. 7.

him, if we keep his Commandments.
 1 John ii. 3. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandments, is a Liar, and the Truth is not in him; but whoso keepeth his Word, in him, verily is the Love of God perfected, hereby we know that we are in him; he that saith, he abideth in him, ought himself also to walk even as he walked. Oh that Christians so called, would consider how they ought to walk. It is very unjustifiable to deny Perfection, for we read, that Christ came to present the Church to Eph. v. 27. God without Spot or Wrinkle, or any & 4, 11, 12, such Thing, but that it should be 13. holy, and without Blemish. And he gave some Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Evangelists, and some Pastors, and Teachers, for the perfecting of the Saints, for the Work of the Ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ, till we all come in the Unity of the Faith, and of the Knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect Man, unto the Measure of the Stature of the Fulness of Christ. And the Scriptures are for the making of the Man of God perfect, thorough Faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture given by Inspiration of God, is profitable for for Doctrine, for Correction, for 2 Tim. iii. Instruction in Righteousness, that the 16, 17. Man of God may be thoroughly furnished unto all good Works. And the Apostle laboured to present Men perfect; speaking of Christ within the Hope of Glory, he saith, whom we preach, warning every Man, and teaching every Man in all Wisdom, that he may present every Man perfect perfect in Christ Jesus. Why should they teach and preach for this End, if there was no Possibility of attaining it. Yet many have born hard upon us, for asserting such Possibility, although it be the Doctrine of Christ: If it be but well considered, I think they hold Perfection to a great Degree, that are called God-fathers and God-Mothers, that do promise and vow three things in the Name of a Child when it is sprinkled. viz. ' That it shall forsake the Devil and all his Works, the Pumps and Vanities of this Wicked World, with all the sinful Lusts of the Flesh? and that it shall do God's Holy Will, and * See the Ch. keep his Commandments, and of England's walk in the same all the Days of Catechism. its Life.' * I wish they themselves may be found in the Practice of what they here promise for another. It is certain, Christians ought to be as like Christ, as it's possible for Men and Women to be, and to walk even as he walk'd, as far as they are capable.

He was holy, humble, meek and merciful; but how much the Reverse are too many that profess to be his Followers. Many who are for Imperfection, and say there is no Victory over Sin while here, do urge that of the Apostle Paul, where he saith, for I know that in me, that is, in my Flesh, dwelleth no good Thing; for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good, I find not; for the Good that I would, that I do; but the Evil which I would not, that

I do. And Ver. 21. he saith, I find then a Law, that when I would do Good, Evil is present with me; for I delight in the Law of God, after the inward Man; but I see another Law in my Members, warring against the Law of my Mind, and bringing me into Captivity to the Law of Sin, which is in my Members: O wretched Man that I am, who shall deliver me from the Body of this Death. If the Reader please, he may read the whole Chapter through for his own Satisfaction; but we may not reasonably suppose this to be the Apostle's present State, but rather personating the carnal State of others, or himself before Conversion, when he saith, ver. 14. but I am carnal, sold under Sin; for we believe he was in a happy State and Condition, when he wrote that Epistle; as he saith in the sixth Chapter, ver. 2. How shall we that are dead to Sin live any longer therein. And in the eight Chapter, ver. 1. There is now therefore no Condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the Flesh, but after the Spirit, for the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the Law of Sin and Death: I wish that all might come to experience these Things in themselves. Now Reader, if thou wilt observe, although many say, that there is no Freedom from Sin on this Side of the Grave, the Apostle saith in the sixth of the same Epistle, ver. 22. to the believing Romans, but now being made free from Sin, and become Servants to God, ye have your Fruit unto Holiness, and the End everlasting ing Life. And John saith in his first Epistle, I have written unto you young Men, because ye are strong, and the Word of ^{1 John ii. 14.} God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. May all come to the Experience of this in themselves. The Apostle Paul saith to the believing Colossians, that they were compleat in him, which is the ^{Col. ii. 10.} Head of all Principality and Power. The Apostle Peter told the Believers, that ^{1 Per. ii. 9.} they were a chosen Generation, a royal Priesthood, an holy Nation, a Peculiar People, that they might shew forth the Praises of him who had called them out of Darknes into his marvellous Light. To be sure these did not break the Commands of God daily, in Thought, Word and Deed. We ^{1 John v. 20.} know that the Son of God is come, and has given us an Understanding, that we may know him that is true; and we are in him, that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ: This is the true God and eternal Life: Behold what manner of Love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the Sons of God; therefore the World knoweth ^{1 John iii. 1.} us not because it knew him not.

Beloved, now are we the Sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he shall appear ^{Chap. 3.} we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is, and every Man that hath this Hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure. John saith, Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit Sin;

1 John iii. 6. for his Seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin; because he is born of

God. It is contrary to the Divine Nature to sin; and as Men are born of it, they will not only know a ceasing from Sin, but it will be their Pleasure and Delight to do the Will of God: Except a Man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God. Unless Men are born of the divine and heavenly Nature, they can never come to do the Will of God, nor keep his Commands; for it is impossible for Men, while they are in the fallen and degenerate State, to do God's Will, and walk in his Way, we read That Enoch walked with God, and before he was translated, the Text saith, he had this Testimony, that he pleased God, Heb. 11. 5. and concerning Zacharias and his Wife Elizabeth, the Text says Luke 1. 6. They were both righteous before God, walking in all the Commandments and Ordinances of the Lord, Blameless; and that all might take such heed to that Divine Grace and good Spirit, which God has graciously sent into their Hearts, that they might walk in all well pleasing before him, and in the End have an Inheritance amongst them that are sanctified, is my sincere Desire.

7. Concerning the Resurrection.

BECAUSE we do not hold with a great many People, in their gross Conceptions concerning the Resurrection, therefore some have not stuck to say we deny it; but we believe lieve firmly, that there will be a Rev. 20.

 Resurrection of the Just and Unjust, 12. 13.
 and that God will give to every 1 Cor. xv.
 Man a Reward according to his 35. 36.
 Works, whether they be good or evil ; but saith the Apostle Paul, Some Men will say, how are the Dead raised up, and with what Body do they come ; he saith to such a curious Enquirer, Thou Fool, that which thou sowest is not quickned, except it die ; and that 1 Cor. xv. which thou sowest, thou sowest not 37. 38. 39.
that Body that shall be, but bare grain, 40.
it may chance of Wheat, or some other Grain ; but God giveth it a Body as it hath pleased him, and every Seed his own Body.

All Flesh is not the same Flesh ; but there is one Kind of Flesh of Men, another Flesh of Beasts, another of Fishes, and another of Birds : There are also Ce- Verle 41. lestial Bodies, and Bodies Terrestrial ; 42. 43.
but the Glory of the Celestial is one, and the Glory of the Terrestrial is another ; There is one Glory of the Sun, and another Glory of the Moon, and another Glory of the Stars ; for one Star differeth from another Star in Glory ; so also is the Resurrection of the Dead ; it is sown in Corruption, it is raised in Incorruption, it is sown in Dishonour, it is raised in Glory, it is sown in Weakness it is raised in Power ; it is sown a natural Body, it is raised a spiritual Body. There is a natural Body, and there is a Spiritual Body. We believe, if we faithfully serve the Lord while we are here, we shall have such glorified Bodies hereafter, as He, in His Wisdom sees fit, and that satisfies us, but the Apostle saith, Ver. 50th, that Flesh and Blood, cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, neither doth Corruption inherit Incorruption: Now what we desire is, that all may have a Part in the first Resurrection, Rev. xx. 6. Blessed and holy is he that hath Part in the First Resurrection, on such the second Death hath no Power.

THE true Christians knew, that they were past from Death to Life, because 1 John iii. they loved the Brethren: He (saith 14. 15. the Text) that loveth not his Brother, abideth in Death: Whosoever hateth his Brother, is a Murderer, and no Murderer, saith John, hath eternal Life abiding in him: And saith 1 Tim. v. 6. Paul she that lives in Pleasure, is dead while she liveth. While Men and Women remain in a State of Death and Alienation from the Lord, they are full of Envy and Wrath one against another; and they live to gratify the lustful Desires of the Flesh. We read, that whosoever doth not Righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his Brother. Oh that all would seriously consider of these Things, for it is greatly to be lamented, how wide many of the Professors of Christianity live from the Doctrine of Christ and Primitive Christians: It is as Men come to know the second Adam, the Lord from Heaven, the quickening Spirit, to quicken them, and make them alive, that they come to love one another as Christians ought to do, end and if all did but live in the Spirit and Doctrine of Christ, they would not only be full of Love and good Will one to another, but would also bring forth other holy and good Fruits, and they whose Fruits are unto Holiness their End will be everlasting Life. As Men sow in this World, so they may expect to reap in the next, we read, that he that sows to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap Life everlasting, and he that sows to the Flesh, shall of the Flesh reap Corruption. Men are not only accountable for gross Sins, but we are told by Christ our Lord, that a Man must give an Account in the Day of Judgment for every idle word he speaks, and the wise Man saith, God will bring every Work to Judgment, with every secret Thing, whether it be good or evil. Now we think it not safe for any to be too Inquisitive how the Dead shall be raised, and with what Bodies they shall come, least that Reproof of the Apostle, thou Fool, should belong to them; but let us all endeavour to live as becomes the Children of God, that when we leave this World, we may have the comfortable Answer of well done, enter into the Kingdom prepared for you from the Foundation of the World, and all such will know a glorious Resurrection.

The Conclusion.

HA V I N G made the foregoing Observations, which are left to the Reader's serious Consideration ; what I greatly desire, is, that all may come to the practical Part of true Religion and Christianity ; for altho' a Man may believe, according to the Scripture, In God who created the Heavens and the Earth, and formed it to be Inhabited : And also believe, that Christ was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, and that he wrought many wonderful Miracles, and suffered Death upon the Cross, as he was Man (for he could not die as he was God) and that he was dead and buried, and rose again, and ascended up to Heaven ; and that he is also come again by his Spirit into Men's Hearts ; although a Man may believe all these great Truths, and all the Articles of the Christian Faith ; all this will not entitle him to a Part in the Kingdom of God, unless he come to live an Holy Life, for we read, that without Holiness, no Man shall see the Lord. Thou believest saith the Apostle, there is one God, thou dost well, the Devils also believe and tremble ; but wilt thou know, O vain Man, that Faith without Works is dead. For as the Body without the Spirit is dead, so Faith without Works is dead, he saith, shew me thy Faith without thy Works, and I will shew thee my Faith by my Works.

Works. The Saints Faith gave them Victory, and wrought by Love, to the purifying of their Hearts. The practical part of Christianity is too much wanting amongst many of them that profess to be the Followers of Christ. To visit the Widow and Fatherless in their Affliction, and to keep themselves Jam. i. 27. unspotted from the World, is the Religion which will avail Men in a dying Hour. It is very good for those unto whom the Lord has opened his Hand wide, and blest with a plentiful Share of these low things, to be full of Bowels of Compassion towards them that are in Want and Distress, and to stand up for the Right of the Widow and Fatherless, this is one part of true Christianity ; but to wrong and oppress the Widow and Fatherless, is the Reverse of Christianity ; many, not only amongst us, but I hope, also amongst other Societies, have so much of the Fear of God, that they hate this, the Scripture saith, that the Fear of God is to hate Pride and Arrogancy, and the Evil Way. The more Men live in the Fear of God, there is the greater Hatred in their Hearts against ill Things, but many for Want of this, have fallen into very bad Company, and evil Things, whereby they have brought great Ruin and Contempt upon themselves. Bad Company has been the overthrow of many, My Son, saith the wise Man, if Sinners entice thee, consent not. The Enemy of Men's Happiness, doth often make Use of ill Instruments to draw People into ill Things ; and as many have been drawn into very wrong and ill Things, by by keeping of loose and bad Company; so I believe many have been greatly corrupted, through reading of corrupt and ill Books, so that some from reading of Atheistical Books, have arrived to a great Degree of Atheism. But it is very profitable to read the Holy Scriptures, which proceeded from the good Spirit of God; as People read them in the same Spirit from which they did proceed; and there are also a great many other good Books that are written by such as did fear God, which do greatly tend to promote Piety and Virtue, and are very profitable to be read.

GREAT Controversies have been, and yet are amongst the Professors of Christianity, about Religion: One saith one Thing, and another, so that I believe, many well minded People are at a very great Stand to know which is the right Way: Now the Apostle Peter, by the Direction of the Holy Ghost, has told us, that God is no Respector of Persons, but in every Nation, he that fears God and works Righteousness, is accepted with him. Now here are the Terms and Conditions clearly laid down, upon which Acceptance with God stands; and this is what we desire all People may come to be found in the Practice of, that so all Bitterness and Envy one against another, about Religion, might cease and come to an End, that Truth and Righteousness may flourish in the Earth.

IF all did but truly live in the Fear of God as they ought to do, there would be an holy Harmony among the Children of Men, and Love, Peace, Mercy, Truth, Justice and Equity, would abound amongst them ; but for want of this, how doth Strife, Envy, Injustice and Oppression, abound, even amongst many of them, who profess to be the Disciples and Followers of Christ. O that the Children of Men had but in their own Experience, what great Reward and Peace there is in living in the Fear of God, and in keeping of his Commands, then they would serve him with Pleasure, for there is Peace and Comfort in obeying and serving the Lord, beyond what any are sensible of, except those that have it in their own Experience ; so that I believe many pious and good People are thankful beyond what they can express in Words, that they were prevailed upon to serve him.

AND such are concerned in Heart, that others might also be gained upon to serve the Lord, that so they might be truly happy ; it is for this End, that many of our Religious good Friends, have travelled from one Land and Country to another, in Hazard of their Lives, it is also upon this Account, that many have appeared in Print, that if possible, they might be instrumental to gain upon the Children of Men, to fear and serve the Lord, for if Men observe a thousand outward Observations, if they do not obey the Lord they will not all render them acceptable in his Sight : Samuel told Saul, that Obedience dience was better than Sacrifice, and to hearken to the Voice of God. was better than the Fat of Rams.

WHEN it pleased God to reach to the Apostle Paul, and bring him to partake of his Love and Goodness, how did his Bowels yern for his Relations and Kinsfolks after the Flesh, that they might be gained upon to serve the Lord. And his Love did not only reach to them, but to Mankind universally, for in his first Epistle to Timothy, he saith, I exhort that 2 Cor. v. Prayers and Intercessions, &c. be made 20. for all Men, and the Apostle labour- ed as in Christ's Stead, that Men might be reconciled to God: O what could a true Christian, that hath the Mind of Christ, go through, that Men might be won upon to serve God truly, that so they might experience the Love and Goodness of God in themselves; for the Nature of the Love of God is such, that when it prevails in Men's Hearts, then they desire that others might come to the share thereof with them, as the good Man of old said, Come, Taste and see that the Lord is good. It is when Men are truly prevailed upon, by the Power of Divine Love, that they come to be in Love with God, and to run the Ways of his Commands with Cheerfulness: for if there were no future Rewards and Punishments, that Peace and Comfort which they enjoy, who truly serve the Lord, is very encouraging to them to persevere therein. Friendly Reader, if thou believest the Death and Sufferings of the Lord Jesus

Jesus Christ, who was crucified without the Gates of Jerusalem, according as the Holy Scriptures relate, let not this satisfy thee, but be concerned that thou mayest know the Lord to bear Rule, and set up his Kingdom in thy Heart, then will it be easy for thee to do the Will of God, and keep his Commands. And if thou hast a Value and Esteem for the holy Scriptures, do not satisfy thy self with only reading the Experiences of the holy Men of God, that spake what they were Witnesses of, who knew a being washed by the Water of Regeneration, but seek that thou mayest also come to the Experience thereof in thy self. And if thou art conscientious for the outward Water-Baptism, and Bread and Wine, be careful thou do not rest in the outward Observations, short of that inward and spiritual Baptism and Communion which the good Christians of old witnessed; that through the Enjoyment thereof, thou mayest grow beyond the Use of the outward and visible Signs: And as thou findest that some of old knew an over-coming of the Enemy of their Souls, and received Power to become the Sons of God, consider what Victory thou hast gotten over the Enemy in thy self. And as some People have been too inquisitive how the Dead should be raised, and with what Bodies they should come, let it be thy great Concern to know thou art raised out of the Grave of Sin and Iniquity, that thou mayst walk with the Lord in newness of Life, and live to his Praise and Glory, whilst thou hast a Being here, that so thou mayst attain to the Resurrection of the Just hereafter.

As the Lord in his wonderful Love and Mercy, has sent the Son of his dear Love, the Lord Jesus Christ, to die for the Children of Men, whilst they were Enemies to him ; I tenderly desire that all may consider the great Love of God to them therein ; and as he is the Fountain and Author of all the Good that we receive, it is greatly to be desired that his long Forbearance, great Goodness, and manifold Mercies extended to the Children of Men, might engage them to Care and Watchfulness : We

1 Pet. iii. read that the Long-suffering of God 20. waited in the Days of Noah, while the Ark was preparing ; and when the Lord had long striven with them by his Spirit, and they would not be gain'd Gen.vi. 20. upon, then he destroyed them all, Ver. 21. 22. save only eight Persons that were in the Ark. It is not long since the Pestilence did very much prevail in France, by which many Thousands were swept away. Now as the Lord has mercifully spared the People of these Countries, and the British Isles adjacent, in lengthening a Day of Mercy to them ; I desire that his great Goodness and long Forbearance, may lead them to Repentance and Amendment of Life ; for the Lord, as a tender Father, seeks to endear the Children of Men to himself, by his Kindness and Love.

AND

AND friendly Reader, that thou, and all Men may be prevailed upon, to walk humbly with God, and live such pious and holy Lives, that the great and good End for which the Lord has made Man, and given him a Being upon the Earth to shew forth his Praise and Glory, may be answered, that thou and they may be happy to all Eternity, is the sincere Desire of one of the People called Quakers.

A P P E N D I X,

Concerning Swearing.

WE do not only deny vain, rash, and false Swearing, but we also Conscientiously refuse to Swear in any Case, or on any Account whatsoever, because we believe our Saviour, Mat. chap. v. ver. 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, did positively forbid all Swearing, for he saith, Again ye have heard that it hath been said by them of Old Time, Thou shalt not forswear thy self but shalt perform unto the Lord thine Oaths: But I say unto you, Swear not at all, neither by Heaven for it is God's Throne, nor by the Earth, for it is his Footstool, neither by Jerusalem, for it is the City of the great King: Neither shalt thou Swear by thy Head, because thou canst not make one Hair white or black, but let your Communication be Yea, Yea, Nay, Nay, for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. From which it is very plain, that as they of old allow'd Swearing, but forbad forswearing or Perjury, so our Saviour here forbids both the one and the other, declaring without any exception, that whatsoever is more than Yea, Yea, Nay, Nay, cometh of Evil. As for profane, vain and rash Swearing, it was also forbidden under the Law, for the third command saith, Ex. chap. 20. ver. 7. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, for he will not hold Him Guiltless that taketh taketh his Name in vain. And as this our Conscientious refusal of an Oath in all Cases, is grounded upon the express command of Christ; we have great Cause to be thankful to the King and Government for their Favour, by Enacting that our Word or Affirmation shall pass in cases of Evidence instead of an Oath. For many of our Elder Friends, underwent great and grievous Sufferings by Fines, Confiscations, Banishments and Imprisonments to Death, for this their Christian Testimony. Swearing is now become so common, that it may with Sorrow be observed, that vain and prophane Swearing abounds, Multitudes in their common Conversation being Guilty of it in open Defiance and Violation both of God and Man. of the laws

IT is very much to be desired that all who profess to be the followers of Christ, may live in Subjection to the Spirit of Christ in themselves, which leads unto all Truth, and consequently to speak Truth on all Occasions: Men and Women under this influence may be very safely trusted, and it is a Reproach to any under the denomination of Christians, that they cannot be depended upon for the Truth of of what they say. Religion however is not yet at so low an Ebb, but that there are many honest well minded People of different Professions who have gained so great Credit and Reputation amongst such as know them, that they are and can be relied on for the Truth of what they write or speak; and were all to live up to the Doctrine of Christ, there would be no Occasion for swearing to awe Men unto Truth speaking ; for the fear of God, which is more forceable than any Oath that ever can be made, would always oblige and engage them thereunto.

THE People call'd Quakers are not the only People principled against swearing. The Mennonists in Holland, and in the united Provinces, they and their Ancestors have for a long Series of Time, constantly refused to take an Oath in any Case whatsoever ; and the States have so far indulged them as to Establish that their Word shall pass in Evidence instead of an Oath, subjecting them who falsify their Words to the same Penalties, as those who are guilty of Perjury, which we hold to be very just and reasonable. The Primitive Christians did generally refuse to Swear, and it is observable, that when their cruel Persecutors sometimes called upon them to Swear, they returned this short Answer, I am a Christian : Divers of the antient Fathers and Martyrs, and early Reformers, were of the same Sentiments on this Subject. See Treatise of Oaths, there the Reader will find many weighty Reasons against all manner of Swearing, supported by the Example and Practice of eminent Christians, Martyrs and Reformers in divers Ages of Christianity, and as this Subject is thoroughly discuss'd in that Treatise, and a full Answer there given to the several Objections usually made on this Head ; the Reader will find it well worth his perusal, a few Quotations out of which said Treatise, take as follows.
